LEARN WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Lisa Bricker is a Certified Life Coach and a family caregiver for her husband Gary who at age 63 was diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer's 6 years ago. As someone who knows and lives this long journey firsthand, Lisa compassionately brings guidance and support in "real-time" for family caregivers seeking balance, empowerment and inspiration.

Lisa is a long standing Professional Certified Coach (PCC) with the International Coach Federation with over 25 years of experience. She was on the Coaching Faculty for the Executive MBA Program for Loyola Marymount University and is also actively involved here in our local community focusing on senior services and Alzheimer's Los Angeles where she serves on the Public Policy Committee, Programs Committee, Speaker's Bureau and is helping to foster dementia friendly communities in the San Gabriel Valley.
